A Book Will Take You There

words by Phil Cummings
music by Glyn Lehmann

Verse 1

Grip the handle of the library door
Enter a galaxy of worlds to explore
Make a choice, sit on the floor...

And imagine if you dare
A book will take you there

Verse 2

When the wind blows on winter's nights
Tug at the blankets, snuggle up tight
Click the switch, turn on the light...

And imagine if you dare
A book will take you there

Bridge 1

Imagine a place, a character, a time
March to the rhythm of a rollicking rhyme
Imagine a journey, a street, a home
A life so different from your own

And imagine if you dare
A book will take you there

Bridge 2

Laugh, discover, listen, share
Learn, understand, imagine, care

Repeat Bridge 1 and 2 simultaneously (2 parts)

Verse 1 reprise

Grip the handle of the library door
Enter a galaxy of worlds to explore
Make a choice, sit on the floor...

And imagine if you dare
A book will take you there

Outro

A book will take you there
