Giant Of The Forest

Words and Music by Glyn Lehmann

I fell to the earth
A tiny seed
Five hundred years ago
Struggling and striving to grow straight and strong
Here in my mountain forest home

I am Centurion
I am Centurion

I have seen the fires raging over ridges
Skeletons left in their wake
I have heard the steel blades
Tearing through the tall trees
The crack and the crash as they fall

Still...
(s) I am Centurion
(s) I am Centurion
(a) Giant of the forest
(a) Giant of the forest
(s/a) I am Centurion / Giant of the forest
(s/a) I am Centurion / Giant of the forest

And when my life ends
A seed will fall
Onto the earth below
Struggling and striving to grow straight and strong
Here in my mountain forest home

Rising up
Striving for life-giving light
For life-giving light
(s) Down, down, down (a) Down, down, down
(s) Delving down deep (a) Delving down
(s) Deep into Earth's damp fertile soil (a) Earth's damp fertile soil
(s) Deep into Earth's damp fertile soil (a) Deep into Earth's damp fertile soil

(s) I am Centurion
(s) I am Centurion (a) Giant of the forest
(s) I am Centurion (a) Giant of the forest
(s) Giant of the forest (a) Giant of the forest
