

Sing For You

words and music by Glyn Lehmann

Verse 1

I've been waiting for the show to begin
So excited waiting in the wings
There's a buzz about the building
As the audience arrives
It's a feeling I'll remember
For the rest of my life

Verse 2

I can't wait now for the show to begin
Feeling nervous waiting in the wings
And the audience goes quiet now
As the light begin to dim
And my pulse is racing, time has come
So let the show begin!

Chorus 1

I'm here to sing for you
I'm gonna raise the roof
I'm here to lift your spirits high
I'm here to sing for you
It makes me feel alive
When I raise my voice in song
I can feel my heart beat strong
Now we're together, there's nothing better
Than to sing for you

Interlude

And as I sing for you
I feel the light of hope shine through
That as I sing this simple song
We might feel a common bond
That music brings
And that is why I sing for you

Chorus 2

That's why I sing for you
Because I know it's true
I'm here to lift your spirits high
I'm here to sing for you
It makes me feel alive
When I raise my voice in song
I can feel my heart beat strong
Now we're together, there's nothing better
Than to sing for you

Vocal recording, backing track and piano/vocal score available from the SongLibrary
<https://songlibrary.net>