

The River

Inspired by, and written for the Children of the Ganges School, India
Words and music by Glyn Lehmann

Verse 1

I could be a dancer
Strong and free
I could be a teacher
Teach children just like me

I could be a singer
Singing my song
Making people happy
When they sing along

All I need is a helping hand
And a chance to learn

Verse 2

I could be a doctor
Making you well
I could be a writer
What stories I would tell

I could be a builder
Make you a home
Somewhere for your family
To live and call your own

All I need is a helping hand
And a chance to learn

Chorus

So be the sun
That melts the mountain snow
Feeds the river
Makes the water flow
I am that river
Heading to the sea
Toward my future
And who I will be

I am that river
Heading to the sea
Toward my future
And who I will be

Bridge

With my heroes there to guide me
Encourage and inspire me
I'll always keep on trying
And let my light keep shining

repeat Chorus

Outro

I am a dancer
I am a teacher
I am a singer
